

GENBUKAN WORLD NINPO BUGEI FEDERATION TRAINING SEMINAR CALGARY - JUNE 3rd and 4th, 2006.

THE GENBUKAN DAIKENSHO DOJO IS PLEASED TO BE HOST FOR THIS SEMINAR

Kyoshi Troy Wideman, Head of the Canadian Genbukan and personal student of Soke Tanemura, is holding a very special two day seminar in Calgary. Kyoshi Wideman is also a member of the Tactical Rescue Team as well as a Use of Force Instructor for the Kitchener Police Dept.

Kyoshi Wideman holds the following ranks and titles:

Genbukan Ninpo 6th Dan (Kyoshi), Kokusai Jujutsu 5th Dan, Hontai Takagi Yoshin Ryu Jujutsu Chu Go Kui Menkyo, Asayama Ichiden Ryu Tai Jutsu Chuden Menkyo, Hanbo Jutsu Shoden Menkyo

Other Ranks and Certificates:

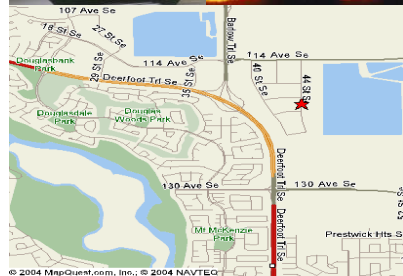

5 years personal disciple of Grandmaster Pan Duing Fu, Qualified Use of Force Instructor, Basic Tactical Course, ASP Baton Instructor, Tactical Pistol Instructor, Tactical Shotgun Instructor, MP5 Operator, Pepper Spray Instructor, Range Safety Operator, ICAT Instructor, Edged Weapons Instructor, Tactical Ground Control Instructor, ARWIN Operator, Hostage Rescue Trained, Explosive Forced Entry Trained, Taser Instructor, and Bujinkan Taijutsu 3rd Dan.

Troy Wideman has been training in the martial arts for over 27 years, since the age of 6. He has studied various martial arts including: judo, karate, kung fu, and holds various ranks in these arts.

Troy is currently a member of the Tactical Rescue Unit with a Regional Police Department. He is also a qualified Use Of Force Instructor who trains police officers in defensive tactics, firearms, judgement training and the use of force.

Troy has been training in the art of Ninpo for the past 18 years. In March of 1994, Troy had the privilege and honour of meeting Grandmaster Shoto Tanemura. Upon training with Sensei, Troy was awed at the quality of Sensei's true Japanese Martial Arts and the strength of his spirit. He immediately asked for the privilege of becoming a personal student of Grandmaster Tanemura. Troy has traveled to Japan extensively and has obtained the rank of 6th Dan (Kyoshi) in Genbukan Ninpo and 5th Dan in Kokusai Jujutsu.

Troy's dreams for the future are to continue to teach people the true traditional Japanese Martial Arts that the Genbukan Dojo has to offer and to continue his direct study under Grandmaster Tanemura.

This special seminar is open to the public. Participants can attend one or both days of training held over the weekend. Members of the Genbukan are also able to attend private sessions with Kyoshi Wideman. This seminar will include Unarmed Defences, Grappling and Ground Techniques, Hanbo (short staff) and Tanto (knife) techniques, Group encounters, and other topics of interest to both martial students and law enforcement personnel. This is Kyoshi Wideman's second visit to Calgary in 12 years. The Daikensho School of Martial Arts and Fitness Centre invites you to come and train with Kyoshi Wideman. The only requirements for attendance are an open heart and mind, kind and compassionate behavior, and politeness.
